

AT HOME IN SOUTH MINNEAPOLIS SINCE 1921

2023

Who we are

A Scandinavian marketplace, founded in 1921 by Norwegian immigrant Charlie Ingebretsen and now run by the 3rd and 4th generations of the Ingebretsen and Dahl families. We strive to foster a deep appreciation for our heritage by offering the foods and goods that connect us all.

Where we are

We're proud to be a constant presence on East Lake Street, a vibrant neighborhood where immigrants have long come to make a start in their new home, and still do. We work to be a peaceful, happy place where everyone is welcome.

Welcome! Velkommen!

To you, our customers, whether you've come for generations or are new to the family. We look backward with gratitude and forward into our second century with excitement and hope.

We invite you to visit soon, in person or online.

Clockwise from top left Store front 1921 Our butcher counter Charlie Sr & Ellen Chas Ingebretsen Sr (left) & family 1927

We honor the lives of three special staff members lost this past year. Marian Nelson, Diane Noble, and Carmen Rowland each added so much to the fabric of Ingebretsen's, and are deeply missed.

Ingebretsen's Nordic Marketplace - The Book!

We're excited to present a new book about us, written and compiled by our own Laila Simon. It builds on a book written for our 90th anniversary (13 years ago!). This 100th anniversary edition is loaded with more history, more about the store today, staff interviews, customer stories, and a full archive of photos! We hope you'll enjoy this trip down memory lane, and our stories about our beloved Lake Street neighborhood and our place in the Nordic-American community we all hold dear. Our building has been graced by a beautiful mural in the traditional Swedish Kurbits style since 1997. Local artist Judith Kjenstad designed and painted it, and it's been a much-loved landmark ever since. We call the center panel "the family table".

It speaks to the heart of what our business means to us - togetherness, food, family, connection, tradition.

Velkommen!

NOTE!

Shipping and supply chain issues are better this year but still happening, and many of our products are at the mercy of those. We're working hard to have plenty of stock, but do order as early as you can. Thanks!
